Tempus West Valley Realty 3

Grandview Terrace 8

Grandview Terrace shut out Tempus over the first six innings and came up with their first win of the session. Tempus valiantly tried to come back with a pair of home runs in their last at bat, but came up short in Thursday's opener. Tempus was led by the home runs by Rich McKinney and Bill Schneidewind and Ray Haus was 2-3. The leading hitters for Grandview were Bob Gosden, 2-3, Terry Nott, 2-3, Jim Slager, 2-3, sub Marie Youngs, 3-3, with a double, and Carol Bowden, 2-3.

Royal Oaks 10

Arizona Center for Cancer Care 8

AZCCC took a 2 to 0 lead in the first inning, but R.O. scored four runs in the 2nd and 6th innings secure their third win in a row. The big sticks for the Royals were Dennis K. 2-4, Cash Franklin, 2-4, Craig Johnson, 3-3, with a home run, Joe Collona, 3-3, Bob Dumond, 2-3, Bonnie Greek, 3-3, and Mel Schiebel, 3-3. Pacing AZCCC were sub Rick Stermer, 3-4, Rachael Ott, 2-4, Larry Ott, 2-3, Jerry Eckert, 2-2, sub Greg Parker, 2-3, with a double, Bob Colli, 2-3, and Bob Freeland, 2-3.

Brenda's Kitchen 5

Hole-N-One 9

All the batters for Brenda's had at least one hit, but they couldn't seem to bunch the hits together to score enough runs. Rus Fagering, 2-4, sub Paul Moye, 2-4, Jim Zielinski, 2-4, Ron Blackwell, 3-4, Tait Douglas, 2-4, sub Marie Youngs, 3-4, and Nick Prestia, 3-4 led the way for B.K. Leading hitters for Hole-N-One were, Bev Burger, 2-3, Tom Garrett, 2-3, Gene Archibeque, 2-3, John Milage, 3-3, with a triple (it could have been a home run, except that he was the 5th run and had to settle for the triple), and Arnie Rehmann, 2-3.

Sun Cities Tire and Auto 11

Vital Care 7

S.C. Tire & Auto also won their first game of the session as they scored in every inning except one to hold on for the victory. Wielding the hot bats for Tire and Auto were Rich Collings, 3-4, Joe Emmons, 2-4, Mary Toland, 2-4, Marc Crockett, 3-3, sub Sharon Amer, 2-3, Bill Steil, 2-3, with a double, Scott, Shive, 2-3, with a double, and Julie McGlynn, 2-3, with a double. Gene Renico, 2-4, Dexter Yard, 2-

3, with a double and a triple, Kevin Shuck, 3-3, sub Dennis Farrar, 2-3, Mel Freund, with a double, and sub Craig Johnson, 2-3, with a double paced Vital Care.

Farrar Chiropractic 9 Larry Ott Realty 10

Farrar nearly bumped the Larrys off of the undefeated list with a furious rally in the 6th and 7th innings, going from a 10 to 5 deficit to come up a run short in the 7th when the tying run was walked in, only to be discounted when the runner touched home plate and was called out. Tom Balfe, 3-4, Ron Mysel, 2-4, sub Bill Hardin, 2-4, Tom Cullaro, 4-4, with a triple, Cindy Gilbert, 2-3, and sub Wes Horn, 2-3, with two doubles, led the hit parade for Farrar. L.O.'s big sticks were Ken Coplen, 3-4, Scott Rich, with a double, Keith Britton, 3-3, with a double, Bob Schneeberg, 2-3, with a double and a triple, (when Bob made an out in the 1st inning, that was the first time in 12 at bats that he had been held without a hit for the Larry's), Les Martin, 2-3, Ken Kauffman, 2-2, and sub Mary Toland, 2-3, with a double.
